Science & Social Media Innovations In Cold Case Investigations From the Newport Beach Police Department

UPDATED TO REFLECT THE SUSPECTS ARREST IN THE LINDA O'KEEFE HOMICIDE

Join Speak Up Newport for a look into Newport Beach Police Department criminal investigations including cutting edge techniques used in our City to combat crime and cold case investigations.

Linda Ann O'Keefe Homicide - Nearly 46 years after the abduction and homicide of Linda Ann O'Keefe, an 11-year-old Corona del Mar girl, the NPD have identified and arrested James Alan Neal, 72, who now faces a special circumstances murder count - making the case eligible for the death penalty. NPD never gave up, using cutting edge techniques to solve the cold case, like DNA matching and giving Linda a voice on Twitter (<http://www.twitter.com/NewportBeachPD>) where tweets in Linda's "voice" were published narrating the last hours of her life.

Peter Chadwick & Countdown to Capture - Peter Chadwick was arrested for the murder of his wife, Q.C. Chadwick in 2012. Chadwick escaped without a trace and is now wanted as a fugitive from justice. "Countdown to Capture" is a compelling podcast released by NBPD.
